

Grains of Hope

Promoting Human Rights in Guatemala

Sombrilla, in association with Amnesty International and Communities at Play Society invites you to join us for an evening focussing on human rights in Guatemala, past and present.

Featuring:

- The short film Mother Tongue, the story of the making of the first feature length film in the Maya-Ixil language.
- Guest speaker, Maria Elena Avarado, who will speak on her experiences as a refugee from Guatemala's civil war.
- photo display and Guatemalan foods for sale.

Where: The Grand Salon, Campus Saint-Jean,
8406 Rue Anne-Marie Gaboury

When: Wednesday May 24th 6:30 PM

Cost: Free